

Blest Are the Moments, Doubly Blest

(LoH DivOfcOrg; Ab - original key)

William Wordsworth (1770-1850)

WAREHAM

William Knapp, 1697-1768

V1

G C G Em Am G D G D G

1. Blest are the mo - ments, doub - ly blest, that, drawn from

7 D G D Em D C#m D G C Bm Am G D

this one hour of rest, are with a rea - dy

12 Em D G C Bm Am G F#m G Am G D G

heart be - stowed up - on the ser - vice of our God!

V2

18 G C G Em Am G D G D G

2. Each field is then a hal - lowed spot, an al - tar

24 D G D Em D C#m D G C Bm Am G D

in each man's cot, a church in ev - 'ry

29 Em D G C Bm Am G F#m G Am G D G

grove that spreads its liv - ing roof a - bove our heads.

V3

35 G C G Em Am G D G D G

3. Look up to heav'n! th_in - dus - trious sun al - read - y

41 D G D Em D C#m D G C Bm Am G D

half his race hath run; he can - not halt or

46 Em D G C Bm Am G F#m G Am G D G
 go a - stray, but our im - mor - tal spir - its may.

V4

52 G C G Em Am G D G D G
 4. Lord, since his ris - ing in the east, if we have

58 D G D Em D C#m D G C Bm Am G D
 fal - tered or trans - gressed, guide from thy love's a -

63 Em D G C Bm Am G F#m G Am G D G
 bun - dant source, what yet re - mains of this day's course;

V5

69 G C G Em Am G D G D G
 5. Help with thy grace, thru' life's short day, our up - ward

75 D G D Em D C#m D G C Bm Am G D
 and our down - ward way; and glō - ri - fy for

80 Em D G C Bm Am G F#m G Am G D G
 us the west, when we shall sink to fi - nal rest.

86 E G
 A - men.