

My Lord and My God

REFRAIN:

You are my Lord and my God and I love you.

1. A - lone and re - jec - ted, his ag - o - ny be - gins
 - trayed and a - ban - doned, Dragged in - to a hall,
 3. The crown of the thorns is forced up - on your head
 (4) brac - ing your cross You start t'wards Cal - va - ry.
 (5) Raised on the hill - top it seems tho' all has failed.

He ac - cepts the chal - ice of dy - ing for my sins.
 Tho' scourged by Ro - man Sol - diers, our sins hurt you most of all.
 I turn to face the guil - ty I see my sins in - stead.
 Crushed by so much e - vil you turn to look at me.
 For our sal - va - tion, Je - sus for us you were nailed.

Oh Je - sus, Oh Je - sus, will you let me stay
 Oh Je - sus, Oh Je - sus, de - fen - ded by so few
 Oh, Je - sus, Oh Je - sus In your suf - fer - ing
 Oh, Je - sus, Oh Je - sus! Did I hear you call,
 Oh Je - sus, Oh Je - sus! I have come to stay.

Share a sip from your cup Watch with you and pray. (to Verse 2) 2. Be -
 So much blood from your wound How can I com - fort you? (D.C.)
 In your tears, in your blood You stand as Christ the King. (to Verse 4) 4. Em -
 As - king me to stay by you, to help you if you fall? (D.C.)
 As you die up - on your cross, Trem - bl - ing you say, (to Bridge ->)

BRIDGE:

Love me, why don't you love me? Please love me.

You are my Lord and my God and I love you.